

TALKING through WALLS

HOW THE STRUGGLE TO BUILD A MOSQUE UNITED A COMMUNITY.

This event is part of 20,000 Dialogues, a nationwide grassroots interfaith dialogue project using films about Muslims and Islam to spark dialogue and discussion amongst people of different faith and cultural backgrounds. The dialogues are designed to increase understanding of Muslims and Islam, develop common ground, educate, and serve as a catalyst for improving interfaith relations.

